

SALE OF LONG-WOOL RAMS, WOLD
NEWTON, NEAR GREAT GRIMSBY.

TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION,
by Mr. HENRY WINDER, on the Premises of Mr. F. Iles, at Wold Newton, on THURSDAY, the 11th of September, 1851, about 60 very superior LONG-WOOL RAMS, 45 of which are Shearlings, and the remainder principally to shear.

The superiority of the breed of Mr. Iles's Sheep is so well known that the Auctioneer considers it needless to make further remarks.

Refreshment at Eleven o'Clock, and the Sale to commence at One.

Wold Newton is within three miles of the Thoresby Station on the East Lincolnshire Railway, at which station conveyances will attend to convey Gentlemen in the Morning, and return with them in the Afternoon.
