

INQUEST.—On Saturday last, an inquest was held at Wold Newton, before Mr. George Marris, gent., coroner, on the body of William Elsey, aged 3½ years, son of Geo. Elsey, of that place, labourer, who being left with another child in their father's house, his clothes accidentally caught fire, and he was burned to death. Verdict accordingly.